

Digitally signed invoice procedure at Siemens Energy India Limited

- Siemens Energy India Limited (“Customer”) is only accepting and processing electronically, duly signed invoices (“e-invoice”) in accordance with the Information Technology (IT) Act, 2000 issued by the Govt. of India.
- Customer is neither processing nor accepting hardcopy / paper invoices and is therefore not maintaining a physical mailing address.
- E-invoices must be send by the Supplier at the following email address by considering below stated instructions and procedures: apindiadigitalinvoicescanning.in@siemens.com
- The below procedure is applicable to all domestic (Indian legal entity) Suppliers.

All Suppliers are requested to strictly adhere to all instructions to support and ensure:

- environmental sustainability by protecting natural resources and reducing CO<sub>2</sub> emission.
- digitalization initiative of Govt. of India.
- a timely and smooth payment procedure. Customer will reject any e-invoice which is deviating from below instructions.

Instruction to be followed while sending e-invoices via email:

- Accepted file format of invoice email attachment: PDF only. Any other format will be rejected, respectively not processed.
- Per each email, only one e-invoice is accepted as attachment. Multiple e-invoices per email will be rejected, respectively not processed.
- If needed: supporting documents such as Purchase Order (PO), delivery, notes, etc to be combined with the e-invoice in the same PDF file.
- Email and related attachment must be readable and editable without a password protection.
- Attachment file size of should not exceed 10 MB.
- An e-invoice sent to any other email address apart from aforementioned email address will neither be accepted, nor be processed.
- “No-reply” email: Supplier will only receive an automatic reply as an email transfer confirmation. Aforementioned email address shall not be used for general inquiries.
- Questions or clarifications (if any) should be sent to the following email address: apinquiry.in@siemens.com, or by contacting number: 080-66201600.

Instruction to be followed to avoid rejection of e-invoices:

- E-invoices are addressed with the correct name of Customer’s purchasing party, i.e. as per the PO issued.
- E-invoices must have valid Purchase Order number.
- E-invoices must state commercial registration number of the Supplier.
- E-invoice must carry correct shipment (if applicable) and billing address as per PO.
- Itemized e-invoice must use the same description as on PO and match with PO (such as quantity, price, etc.)
- E-invoice presenting items not shown in related PO will be rejected. Additional items must to be agreed with a PO Amendment before submitting the e-invoice.
- No handwritten corrections on e-invoice accepted.
- E-invoices without a correlating PO (if agreed between the Customer and the Supplier in writing beforehand): such e-invoices should state charging details, such as Cost Centre and GL Code. Supplier must insist to receive this information by the Customer’s purchasing party.
